National Archery Shoot In Final Days Of Competition

Awards To Be Made Tonight
At Grayling High Gymnasium

Big Money Shoot Set For Friday

More than 3,000 registered archers stepped to shooting line after a Monday afternoon to get the biggest National Field Archery Shoot underway. The shoot, the 13th set a mark for registered archers as target-minded bowmen from all states took part over the rolling course at Camp Grayling.

Shots in the tournament will be shot Thursday with a barbecue cook-off to be held at the camp late in the afternoon and a mass meeting at the Grayling High Gymnasium to present awards, medals and ribbons and to present the tournament champions in the six different classes.

Shooting got underway on the hunting-simulated target courses after lunch Monday following instructions from Karl Palmatier, commander-in-chief of the tournament. The archers were divided into Camp Grayling and Michigan in an address by Brig. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald, Quartermaster General of Michigan, Gerald Eddy Conservation Director and by Miss Marjorie Wolff, Michigan Winter Sports Queen and National Trout Empress.

Champions were to be decided in Men's, Women's, Intermediate boys and girls (13 to 15) and junior boys and girls (under 12). The course for the Grayling meet was laid out in the shape of ten giant four-leaf clovers. Each leaf of a four-leaf clover has 14 targets, making 680 targets for the entire course. This large sized course enabled the shooters to move through their target rounds rapidly.

A gallery of several thousand people followed the shooters. An even larger crowd is expected at the Camp Friday to follow the sixteen contestants in the $5,000 Fred Bear Invitational Shoot open only to the top eight men and women finishers in the regular tournament. This added attraction at the tournament will be shot on open range in order that the gallery will have a better chance to observe the archers. There is no charge for spectators and the public is invited to come on out to the camp to watch.

The archers and their families mostly housed in tents and trailers at Camp Grayling did not find themselves at loose ends for things to do. Ten buildings contained exhibits from archery manufacturers from all over the United States while several mess halls were converted to cafeteria for use by those at the tournament.

In addition to these attractions, a team of expert water skiers were imported and gave exhibitions of fancy and trick skiing on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Monday evening a display of fireworks added to the enjoyment of all. Free boat rides were available all day Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Swimmers swimming and sunbathing also helped make the Grayling tourney one for those in attendance to remember.

A dance on Tuesday evening at the Officer's Club featuring both round and square dancing drew a large crowd of archers who seemed to have a fine time.

Educate Mason Chapel Next Thurs., 1:30 p.m.

Services of the George W. Jason chapel on the south branch of the AuSable River will take place August 7 at 1:30 p.m. Representatives of the Michigan Conservation Department and Conservation Commission will attend the dedication with Commissioner George A. Griffith of Bay City accepting for the Department.

The chapel is located about midway on the seven miles of river frontage which was conveyed to the State under terms of Mrs. Miller's will. The estate also provided for trout planting and construction of the chapel on the Crawford County wilderness property.

To Burn Over Target Areas

During this week or next most of the impact areas of the various ranges of the National Guard in Crawford County will be controlled. This is a step to ward off the number of forest fires during training while the Guard is in the process of field training.

In last Monday's game, Millikin Construction, squeezed by DeCaires in a close 2-1 ball game. It marked the second time this season DeCaires has failed to win.

DeCaires had two hits and one walk. Bob Gildner held the DeCaires to two hits.

Smiggins trounced AuSable by a score of 12-4, marking the tenth loss of the season for the Souvenir nine.

Clyde Weiss and Jerry White had three hits apiece to top the Smiggins sluggers at the plate. Tom Peterson of Frederick hit his first home run of the season.

Chevrolet had little trouble in downing Kelsey by a score of 10-0 to avenge an earlier defeat. It was the second shutout in the season for the Chevrolet team, an infield single in the fifth inning.

Things weren't quite so easy for Chevrolet on Thursday as they were beaten by DeCaires by a score of 4-2. Winning pitcher Berne Fowler limited the Chevrolet to six hits. Joe Lowe was tops for the winners with three hits. Ron Larson had two singles for Chevrolet.

Friday night proved to be anight for the top ten as sequence in as much as only three regular classes can be scheduled.

Accredited schools must provide instruction in physical education and health for both boys and girls. Your present schedule does not provide this for girls and for boys only when not actively engaged in athletic practice daily.

There is no provision for foreign language.

There is dire need of more instructional material such as film, film strips, maps and charts.

There is need to re-evaluate the total English department, particularly in grades 7 thru 12.

More supervisory help should be given to new, inexperienced teachers.

One of the biggest problems confronting this school is lack of adequate library service to students and teachers. A good library must have a teacher librarian to devote at least half-time to library duties. The library should be moved to a separate room. The book collection should be weeded out and catalogued. A larger budget should be set aside for library materials. A better collection of

Grayling High School Accredited Improvements Recommended

Grayling High School has again been accredited by the University of Michigan for another two year period after being visited by a team of representatives from the accreditation department of the University.

We quote from their report: "As upon previous visits we were pleased to note the fine teacher and pupil morale. Your staff cooperated fully in providing pertinent information to us. Your building was in good condition from a structural and maintenance standpoint and business, educational and homemaking facilities have been greatly improved by the recent move. The administration has organized and is operating in a manner which is commendable." There is evidence that considerable improvements are being made in your program for next year. As you plan for future improvements attention should be given to the following matters:

Present homemaking equipment and furniture is very inadequate. Though more space is available since this activity was moved equipment is almost nonexistent and the entire area most unattractive.

Many teachers must now make five different daily preparations which is unrealistic to expect of even the most dedicated staff member. Every effort should be made to move to a longer instructional period which would provide sufficient time for instruction in the regular class period and would alleviate the problem of large study hall groups in the session. This which is certainly not conducive to the maintenance of good study habits. The practice of scheduling athletics during the school day means that the last period of the day is of little con-

Millikins Continue To Hold Lead In Crawford County Softball League

After the completion of the second complete round of play in the Crawford County Softball League, it appears that a two team race for the regular season championship has finally developed. Millikin Construction, riding the top of the heap, with a 10-2 being closely pursued by Smiggins, the second placers, who are only one game behind on a 9-3 record. Three games remain to be played.

Smiggins dropped Bear Archery 10-1 and Millikin downed Kelsey 8-1. Mike Joyce of Smiggins had a double, a triple, and a single in the first game for the Archers got a home run. In the second game Jerry Walker and Don Millikin had two hits along with Lake, the Kelsey first base man.

In two exhibition games over the weekend, Smiggins' 10-2 split with the Twin Lakes Independents of Muskegon.

Twin Lakes blanked the Grayling team 8 to 0 in the first game but Grayling came back to win the second game 4 to 2. In the first game on Saturday night Twin Lakes had J. Press on the mound with Elmer Kellogg behind the plate. Jerry Korhonen was on the hill for Smiggins with Fritz Golnick catching. In the second game on Sunday afternoon "Wenger" pitched a 5 hit ball.

Wenger pitched a 5 hit ball for the win for Smiggins with Golnick catching. Twin Lakes used D. Moran on the hill with Kellogg catching.

Press, Twin Lakes pitcher in the first game hung up ten strikeouts while Ted Storeman, the right fielder got 3 hits. Ted Kuzel, the third baseman, two hits and a home run.

Twin Lakes out hit Smiggins 10 to 4 in the first game with the Grayling lads hammering out 10 hits to 3 for the visitors in the second contest.

While amateurs have their choice of days to play all matches are to be completed on the day they begin.

Professional golfers will again be invited to one day. The compact Sunday, August 17. Entry fee for the Open will again be $5.00 and a nominal charge will be made for noon lunch.

Two G.O.P. And Six Democratic Contests Featured On Ballot

Three Way Sheriff Race Is Lone Local Contest

A three way battle for the Republican nomination for Crawford County Sheriff loomed as the big local question for the Primary Election set for next Tuesday, August 5th.

Also the fight for the Republican nomination for State Senator for the 28th Senatorial District drew some local interest. In addition to these two Republican frays, there are six battles for nomination on the Democratic side of the ballot.

The Sheriff's race in Crawford County pits incumbent John A. Papenfuss, an officeholder for many terms against a former Deputy Rolls M. Failing and a newcomer to Crawford County politics, Patrick E. Harwood. The race for the Senate nomination involves incumbent Charles T. Prescott who has served the District for twelve years and LaVerne Bonman, a Gladwin County resort operator.

On the ballot the Republicans present Paul D. Bagwell for governor; Donald A. Brown, lieutenant-governor; Charles E. Potter, United States Senator; Elford A. Conner, U.S. representative to Congress; Emil Petri, State Representative; Ward F. Ellison, Prosecuting Attorney; Leo E. Lovley, County Clerk and Claribel Goss, County Treasurer.

Contrary to their usual practice, the Democrats will have contests for every office except on the county ticket which presents no candidates other than Lawrence Hunter for Register of Deeds.

G. Mennen Williams will be opposed by William L. Johnson for Governor; John B. Swanson and Michael T. Rohrbach are candidates for Lieutenant Governor.

Philip A. Hart and Howard Mattingly for United States Senator; Daniel E. Reed, Richard K. Cronkard, William L. Hellerman for Congress; Edward J. Bouche and Jerry M. Stone for Representative in State Legislature.

WORTHWHILE REPRESENTATION

That is what we believe the people of the Presque Isle District want from their representative.

The eight terms served by Rep. Politz in this office have made him an experienced legislator and have given him a great insight into state government.

They have made him influential in legislative circles as no new candidate could expect to be.

He offers the kind of representation that is needed, should be continued, and we know we can get.

SEN. POTTER REPORTS

From Washington

A POWER-MAD Egyptian Hitler, egged-on by the Kremlin, is challenging American interests in the Middle East. Using the "big lie" technique over eleven transmitters of Radio Cairo and six new ones bought from Czechoslovakia, Nasser is broadcasting inflammatory poison through the Nile delta, North Africa, Ghana and West Sudan. He has fomented revolution in Jordan and his latest thrust has toppled the government of Iraq, keystone of the democratic Baghdad Pact alliance.

Republicans fear that some of the most cherished of the present constitution's amendments would be altered or dropped from whatever new document the convention drafted.

Republicans would like to keep the "balanced legislature" and most likely of both parties want to retain the basic tenets of state civil service.

Recognizing its faults which they agree can be corrected, neither party publicly wants to return to the pre-1941 era when technical experts and stenographers were hired for their political ties and not their talents.

Some of the farm groups would like to abolish the amendment which legalized the sale of oleo margarine, feeling it severely damaged agriculture and the sale of butter.

The public, too, has a great stake in the November election on the issue of calling a constitutional convention.

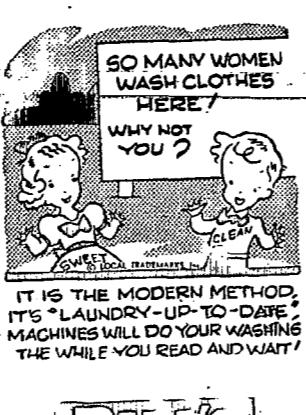

Many of the major reforms have been initiated by popular petition, the civil service amendment, for instance.

Difficult and uncertain procedures remain, however, before the new constitution can be developed and finally drafted and put into effect.

The convention will extend at least five months — if one is called, and the newly proposed constitution must be submitted to the voters at another election.

The whole affair is certain to produce two major campaigns, one for and against the calling of a convention and another for and against the final constitution.

Grade School Economics . . .

Supposing you manufactured wheelbarrows and paid $2.00 an hour for labor. Supposing a labor boss demanded $3.00 an hour without increasing the wheelbarrow output, and in addition demanded that you reduce the price of your wheelbarrow on the shop-worn theory that it would increase "purchasing power".

The purchasing power of whom? Not the wheelbarrow maker unless he increased his price more than he did; an hour wage increase added to his cost. Then the consumer would be stuck as his dollar dropped in purchasing power. Not the workman if the labor boss forced the wheelbarrow manufacturer to price himself out of the market and go broke. Then the workman would be out of a job and lose his purchasing power, as would the manufacturer.

Labor dictators have long been able to force wage boosts without increased production to justify them. Their fine-spun argument that this could be done without increasing prices is one of the causes of the buying slow-up today. Their expensive chickens are now coming home to roost and they aren't laying any golden eggs.

Nothing truer was ever said than "one man's wage is another man's cost". That is as inescapable as the fact that when government spending and government debt go up the value of the dollar goes down.

Surgery And The Elderly . . .

Within the past few years, three of the most famous living Americans have undergone surgery — President Eisenhower, the former Presidents Hoover and Truman. The ages of these men ran from 65 to 83. In each case, recovery was complete, and the patient resumed activity within a very short space of time.

This fact is cited in an article by Robert P. Goldman in the May 25 issue of Parade. And he uses it to point up the tremendous strides that American medicine has made in the surgical treatment of elderly people. He writes that patients aged 60 to 90 and beyond are undergoing surgery as a routine matter today — something that virtually unheard of a generation ago. Patients who were refused surgery as bad risks when in their 60's are now being operated on safely in their 70's. And the mortality rate in operations on the aged is as low as 5 per cent, where a generation ago it was several times that figure.

Many medical advances are responsible. A new

ANOTHER STRATOSPHERE JET

"light" anesthesia does not affect the lungs and heart. New instruments have eliminated other hazards. A vast increase in nutritional knowledge plays a vital constructive role in both the pre-operative and the post-operative periods. New drugs have all but wiped out pneumonia and other chest disorders.

The significance of this is impossible to exaggerate. We are living far longer than did our ancestors, and our descendants will live longer still. The proportion of senior citizens to the total population rises steadily. That has presented an urgent challenge to American medicine — and the challenge is being met with outstanding, even spectacular, success.

Little Barbara Hermann of

Featuring an interesting display of mechanical equipment, including the latest developments of Henry Ford's great motor plant at Dearborn, the famous Ford V-8 exhibition, was held in 1935 automobile show, staged in Grayling Tuesday for a showing at the George Burke Ford Sales.

The fire department was called out to quench two fires this week. Tuesday a portion of the M. C. roundhouse caught fire from an unknown source, but was put out so quickly that very little harm was done. Early Wednesday evening Lincoln automobile belonging to Thorvald Sorenson caught fire from defective wiring. Mr. and Mrs. Sorenson had just returned home from Houghton Lake and had just reached their house when the car burst into flames. The alarm was immediate put in but the flames made such rapid progress that the upholstery and top were entirely destroyed, leaving only the framework. At the time, the car carried twenty-five gallons of gas which, miraculously, did not become ignited.

A potluck dinner followed by a program was given Friday evening by the Ladies Aid of Michelson Memorial church to welcome the Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Giegling, who have recently moved to the community, the former as pastor of the church. Following the dinner, Miss Geraldine Goddard of Fenton read two very clever selections; Mrs. June Underwood sang two very pleasing solos, and Mrs. Olaf Michelson gave some of her own poems which are always enjoyed, which were followed by a few welcoming remarks by Rev. Giegling. Mrs. C. G. Clappert rendered two very beautiful solos which were followed by a very inspiring talk by Rev. Flory. The Rev. and Mrs. Flory having been recently married, the Aid surprised them with many useful gifts which were presented one at a time by little Emily Giegling and Alice Johnson of Hale, later in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millikin and daughter Helen Jean and Mr. and Mrs. John Petersen and daughter Arlene drove to Gaylord Sunday, where they spent the day.

Peter Maser and son Walter of Sandusky were here over the week end picking huckleberries and visited at the home of Henry Jordan.

Miss Betty Jerome and her guest, Miss Mary Ellen McMahon of Detroit spent the weekend at the Jerome cottage at the lake. Miss McMahon is a former classmate of Miss Betty's.

Mrs. Sude Martin returned Monday to her home in Battle Creek after spending several weeks here visiting among her children, Mrs. Paul Feldhausen and Carlton and William Wythe.

George Lutz and family have moved into the house formerly occupied by Theodore Wilkins.

Woodburn pitched for Grayling but had to be "pulled out" and Alfred Olson finished the game. He put over all kinds of "stuff," especially high balls that they couldn't reach. There was plenty of work on the trestle board for Grayling and they entertained him.

The ball flew out into the field like shots from a gatting gun. But when Grayling came to bat, try their darndest, they couldn't obtain a passage. We were licked 15 to 1.

ACROSS the DESK

ideas from other editors

The Canton Independent-Gazette It appears that chances for Alaskan statehood are now better than they have been since 1910—when the issue first reached Congress. The merits of the case seem to be indisputable, and the recommendation for statehood—or the bill proposing it—has now been approved by the appropriate Congressional committees.

Alaska is a huge area, and its value to the U.S. has been overestimated. It is the equivalent of a land mass stretching from Maine to Florida, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, which equals the area of the twenty eastern-most states.

The United States has already received over four hundred times more than the seven million purchase price it paid to Imperial Russia for Alaska in metal, minerals, timber and oil, etc.

Moreover, the principal of taxation without representation is directly involved. And, to those who say it is too sparsely settled, it is interesting to know that more than twenty of our states were admitted to the Union before we had as many people as now inhabit Alaska about 212,500.

And, looking at the background and stock of people, it is interesting to know that more than eighty per cent of them are of the same stock as those who first settled the United States. The Communist problem is almost non-existent in Alaska, and it is estimated that no more than ten or twelve Communists inhabit the territory—which is certainly near the best average of any of the states in the Union.

Therefore it is hard to oppose admission of Alaska. The people are taxed heavily there, the government owns practically everything, and they have no appropriate representation in Congress. After all, this country was founded on taxation with representation, and that is what this question is all about.

From The Tallahassee Tribune, Tallahassee, Alabama: We were not quite prepared for the decision of a Tennessee judge who recently enjoined a radio station to restore classical music to a time period from which it had been displaced by a program of popular music for teen-agers.

Now this newspaper is not a qualified judge of music, either classical or rock and roll. But we are old fashioned enough to have respect for our courts. And when we read about judges engaging in such horse play or stupidity it fills us with disgust.

Michelson Memorial Church News

(Too Late For Last Week)

Michelson Memorial is happy to see many familiar faces at the summer people return, as well extending a hearty welcome to many who are worshipping here for the first time. Rev. R. C. Puffer had just returned Sunday from what he describes as one of the most rewarding experiences of his life: a week as counselor at the Intermediate Camp at Lake Louise. Joe Robertson is attending the Lake Louise Senior Camp this week, and the Intermediate group will have their week at Camp Knight-of-the-Pines later, while the adults were in attendance the first week of the month. Mr. Puffer is also scheduled to serve at Camp Knight for a week.

Attendance awards for the month of June and the Spring Quarter were distributed Sunday as follows: Kindergarten monthly pins for June: Becky Kangas, Vickie Wheeler, Kathy Post, Mary Kay Hunter, Dale Neilson, Steven Funk, Elizabeth Halstead, Jimmy Knibbs, Gary Johnson, Duane Halstead, Mary Ann Gothro, Jane Pettigill, Debbie McWilliams, Kindergarten quarterly awards: June: Ruthie Dill Neilson, Debbie McWilliams, Steven Funk, Elizabeth Halstead, Jimmy Knibbs, Gary Johnson, Duane Halstead, Mary Ann Gothro, Vicki Wheeler, Mary Kay Hunter.

Primary monthly pins for June:

Nancy Knibbs, David Neilson, Billie Boeve, Sheila McWilliams, Marjorie Johnson, Marilyn Johnson, Gail Hunter, Carlene Church, Johnny Horning, Steven Neilson, Jimmy Rowland, Pam Wheeler, Jayne Post, Philip Stans, Gerald Ansle, Mike Worsell, and Curtis Baynes.

Primary quarterly awards April through June: Nancy Knibbs, David Neilson, Billie Boeve, Sheila McWilliams, Marjorie Johnson, Marilyn Johnson, Gail Hunter, Candy Pond, Carlene Church, Johnny Horning, Steven Neilson, Jimmy Rowland, Pam Wheeler, Jayne Post.

Cross and Crown pins in the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Departments, as follows: Audrey Walmsley, Peter Funk, Jack Harvey, Susan Millikan, Nancy Fenton, Kenny Halstead, Linda Knibbs, Sharon Long, Anna Marie Church, Johnny Horning, Steven Neilson, Jimmy Rowland, Pam Wheeler, Jayne Post.

As a whole, the survey covered all parts of the country.

Among Crawford County's retail stores, it shows, the ones selling food collected a larger part of its consumer's dollar than did any others except automotive stores. They got 22 cents of it.

Part of the year's large food outlay is attributable to increased costs and the other part to the trend toward a somewhat better diet than before.

Many housewives, also, paid more in order to get "convenience" foods, such as shaped ham-burger patties, sliced peas, washed and cut-up chicken, as well as frozen and pre-cooked products.

As a whole, the public had more money available for spending during 1957 than they had the year before, enabling them to improve their scale of living.

Most, but not all, of the other retail lines also did well in the year, according to the survey.

Stores selling new and used cars and other automotive equipment, except trucks, had sales 26 cents of the retail dollar.

General merchandise stores accounted for $146,000, amounting to 2 cents.

Sales-in-store shops came to $235,000, or nearly 4 cents, while drug stores chal'd up $210,000, equal 3 cents.
